

2024 ELECTION

Resources and Community Spaces

SEVERAL CAMPUS PARTNERS ARE OFFERING SPACES FOR TRITONS TO CONNECT, PROCESS, AND REFLECT IN COMMUNITY AFTER THE NOV. 5, 2024 ELECTION.

Post-Election Community Connection

Facilitated by Student Affairs Case Management Services, this non-clinical space is designed to support students in reflecting together after the election, offering an environment for open discussion, connection, and grounding.

In Person:

Nov. 7, 2024, 1 p.m. at the Dolores Huerta / Philip Vera Cruz Meeting Room

Virtual:

Nov. 6, 2024, 3 p.m. ucsd.zoom.us/j/97962737568

Nov. 8, 2024, 2 p.m. ucsd.zoom.us/j/96031879595

NCRC Discussion Spaces

The Restorative Justice Committee, Center for Student Involvement (CSI), and National Conflict Resolution Center (NCRC) are creating spaces for dialogue where students can reflect on the election's impact, share perspectives, and connect with others.

In Person:

Nov. 6, 2024, 2 – 3:30 p.m. in the Price Center East Ballroom

Virtual:

Nov. 14, 2024, 1 – 2:30 p.m. tinyurl.com/ucsdelectionsfa24

“Vibe and Thrive”

The Undergraduate Colleges will host a Post-Election Community Space with crafts, conversations, and connection opportunities.

In Person:

Nov. 14, 2024, 4 p.m. at the Sixth College East Lawn

LGBTQIA+ Community Care Space

The LGBT Resource Center will host a post-election LGBTQIA+ Community Care Space.

In Person:

Nov. 6, 2024, 10 a.m. at the LGBT Resource Center